UGCET- 2022 – EDIT OPTION – FINAL & LAST OPPORTUNITY TO CANDIDATES

Several students have sent request letters to edit the data entered in the online applications of UGCET 2022, hence one more opportunity to edit the UGCET 2022 application, KEA in the interest of the students, has enabled the link for the last time, so that students can correct the wrongly entered information in the already declared / submitted UGCET 2022 applications:

- Students cannot edit the Name of the candidate, Father Name, Mother Name, DOB, Gender, Nationality, e-mail ID and Mobile number
- Claiming Agriculturist quota for Farm Science course is not allowed now as document upload date is over and practical test is scheduled on 12.07.2022.
- Candidates can change the clause code as per their eligibility. However, candidates who have not claimed Clause code 'C' or 'D' cannot claim now.
- Except the information mentioned at Sl.No. (a), (b), & (c), all other information can be edited in the UGCET 2022 application.
- Student should bear in mind that they should not select and press declaration button until they have exercised all the necessary edit option. In case they select and press declaration button, they cannot do any further editing. So it is advised that student should take the print out of the application form before submitting the declaration. They should verify whether all details entered are correct and then only as a final step select and submit the declaration. Last and final chance to edit is allowed till 15.07.2022 by 5.00 PM.
